Nova Scotia Safe Check-in Form

Jamie Test Benoît, your Safe Check-in confirmation number is NSX-TtPdP.

You are approved to arrive in Nova Scotia on 21 May 2021.

A copy of this confirmation has been sent to jamie.benoit@novascotia.ca. You will need to show this screen or your confirmation email when you arrival in Nova Scotia, along with a piece of identification.

Accepted identification includes:

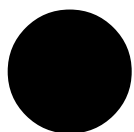

- driver licence
- government issued identification
- bank statement with permanent home address
- utility bill with permanent home address
- passport

What you need to do next:

Get tested for COVID-19

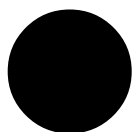

It's recommended that you get 3 COVID-19 tests when you arrive in Nova Scotia, even if you don't have symptoms. Book a COVID-19 test on day 1 or 2, on 6, 7 or 8 and on day 12 of your self-isolation by completing the COVID-19 Self-assessment \(https://covid-self-assessment.novascotia.ca/\).

Provide documentation to support your registration as an Exempt Traveller

You need to show official documents when you arrive in Nova Scotia that support your registration as an Exempt Traveller. This might include:

- work ID card
- documents for child custody arrangements
- proof of medical appointment
- proof of legal proceeding

Follow the Exempt Traveller Protocol \(PDF\) (<https://novascotia.ca/coronavirus/docs/COVID-19-Protocol-for-exempt-travellers-en.pdf>) when you arrive in Nova Scotia

If you have immediate family members travelling with you, they aren't exempt from self-isolation and will have to self-isolate for 14 days. Find out more about how to self-isolate safely \(https://novascotia.ca/coronavirus/symptoms-and-testing/#self-isolate\).

It is important to continue to monitor your health for the symptoms of COVID-19. If you develop any of the symptoms, complete a COVID-19 Self-assessment \(https://covid-self-assessment.novascotia.ca/\) or call 811 for further assessment. 811 is open 24 hours a day.
